Second Annual SoCo Clicks Photography Exhibition at the Museum of Sonoma County
July 9 – September 10, 2022

Santa Rosa, CA – (July 7) The Museum of Sonoma County (MSC) is pleased to announce the Second Annual SoCo Clicks Photography Exhibition, on view July 19 through September 10, 2022. The exhibition showcases the work of students throughout Sonoma County. The exhibit is presented by Santa Rosa Junior College, ArtQuest Photography at Santa Rosa High School, Casa Grande High School, Petaluma High School, Sonoma Valley High School, Windsor High School, and the Museum of Sonoma County.

The competition was open to current or previously enrolled Sonoma County students and welcomed photography produced within the last two years using color as well as black and white film, digital and alternative processes.

Categories for submission in this second year were The Still World, The Natural World, Alternative, Photojournalism, and Portraiture. Prizes were awarded for First, Second, and Third Place in each category, and to an overall Best of Show. Best of Show was awarded this year to Peyton Rosa, a Junior at Sonoma Valley High School.

SoCo Clicks was made possible through the generosity and dedication of numerous individuals, groups, and businesses.

About the Museum of Sonoma County

Located in Downtown Santa Rosa on Seventh Street between A and B Streets, the Museum of Sonoma County (MSC) presents exhibitions of modern and contemporary art and local and regional history. MSC is open year-round with changing exhibitions, public programs, school tours, and special events. MSC preserves and manages a regional art and history collection of over 18,000 objects, the region's largest object documentation of Sonoma County's history and culture.

Mission

The Museum of Sonoma County engages and inspires our diverse community with art and history exhibitions, collections, and public programs that are inclusive, educational, and relevant.

Smithsonian Affiliate

The Museum of Sonoma County has been a Smithsonian Affiliate since 2009. Smithsonian Affiliations establishes long-term partnerships with museums, education and cultural organizations to facilitate the loan of Smithsonian artifacts and traveling exhibitions, as well as to develop innovative educational collaborations locally and nationally. Created in 1996 by an act of the Smithsonian Board of Regents, the program is overseen by the Smithsonian's Assistant Secretary for Education and Access and is one of the pillars of the Institution's national outreach efforts. There are more than 200 Smithsonian Affiliates in nearly every state, Puerto Rico and Panama. Affiliates represent the diversity of America's museum community—size, location and subject—and serve all audiences. More than 8,000 Smithsonian artifacts have been displayed at Affiliate locations for the past 20 years.
